Uriah the Hittite (Hebrew: אוּרִיָּה הַחִתִּי ʾŪrīyyā haḤītti) is a minor figure in the Hebrew Bible, mentioned in the Books of Samuel and the Books of Kings, an elite soldier in the army of David, king of Israel and Judah, and the husband of Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam. While Uriah was serving in David's army abroad, David, from the roof of his palace, looked down on his city and spied upon Bathsheba bathing in the privacy of her courtyard. Moved by lust at the sight of her, David called for Bathsheba to be brought to him and slept with her, impregnating her. In an effort to hide his misdeeds, David called Uriah home from war, hoping that he and Bathsheba would sleep with each other and that he would be able to pass the child off as belonging to Uriah. However, Uriah, being a disciplined soldier, refused to visit his wife. So David murdered him by proxy by ordering all of Uriah's comrades to abandon him in the midst of battle, so that he ended up getting killed by an opposing army. Following Uriah's death, David took Bathsheba as his eighth wife.

Meaning of Numbers in the Bible
The Numbers of Forgiveness

Biblical Meaning of Numbers

1 - 2 - 3 - 4 - 5 - 6 - 7 - 8 - 9

10 - 11 - 12 - 13 - 14 - 17 - 20

21 - 24 - 25 - 30 - 33 - 40 - 111

222 - 333 - 444 - 555 - 777 - MORE!

How does the usage of the numbers 7, 50, 70, 100, 490, 500 and 10,000 in the books of Matthew and Luke illustrate God's forgiveness? How do they reveal how serious our Creator is in terms of wanting us to forgive others who sin against us?

The Numbers 50 and 500

Our first example uses the numbers 50 and 500 to illustrate forgiveness. Jesus, while dining at a Pharisees' house in the summer of 28 A.D., is approached by a well-known sinful woman who humbly washes his feet with her tears and anoints them. The Pharisee, who notices this behavior, condemns Jesus in his heart for allowing such a notorious "sinner" near him (Luke 7:36 - 39).
